

17th of September, 2015 – Harry Dudley Smith

It is with regret that I advise you of the passing of Harry Dudley Smith on Monday 14 September 2015.

Harry was involved in Scouting as a boy and became a leader at 16th Sydney Scout Troop in 1950. He moved around most of the Regions in Sydney during his Scouting career. In his 48 years of service, he served in South Met, Sydney North and GWS in a variety of roles. He spent many years in the Blue Mountains.

He will be sadly missed by his son Peter, family and friends.

The Scout Movement extends sincere condolences to his family and friends
